

The West Kent Inter-Varsity Club

Constitution

The use of either male or female gender anywhere in this document is taken to include both men and women.

NAME

1. The name of the Club shall be "The West Kent Inter-Varsity Club" hereinafter referred to as "the Club".

OBJECTS

2. The objects of the Club are:-
 - (a) To provide opportunities for social, cultural and recreational activities among graduates and other people of similar interests resident in and visiting the following boroughs, Medway, Sevenoaks, Tonbridge & Malling, Maidstone, Tunbridge Wells, Wealden and Rother.
 - (b) To provide facilities for visitors or temporary residents from other Inter-Varsity Clubs, in accordance with the Reciprocal Agreement of the Association of Inter-Varsity Clubs.
3. The Club shall not hold or express any political, religious or racial opinions, nor shall it be associated with any organisation which does.

MEMBERSHIP

4. The following shall be eligible for ordinary membership of the Club: full time students and graduates of Universities, teaching hospitals or similar institutions, professional people and others considered by the Committee to have similar tastes and interests. Admission to membership shall be subject to approval of the Committee who may take such steps as they see fit to determine the applicant's suitability for membership. All applicants for membership shall, if required, produce evidence of their eligibility for membership. The Committee may, at its absolute discretion, refuse any application for any class of membership without assigning any reason.
5. The Committee may, by resolution, invite any person of standing to become an honorary member. A General Meeting may invite any person of standing to become an Honorary Vice-President.
6. People staying in the area defined in clause 2a for a short period, and otherwise satisfying the criteria for membership, may become temporary members. No entrance fee shall be charged to temporary members, and subscriptions shall be fixed by the Committee. Honorary and temporary members shall not be qualified either to vote at General Meetings or to hold any office except President or Honorary Vice-President. They shall be entitled to all other benefits and privileges of membership, except as provided in Article 43.

7. Any person, other than a current member of another Club belonging to the Association of Inter Varsity Clubs, applying for membership of the Club for the first time shall first apply to the Committee for introductory membership for a period of three months. At the end of the three month period, introductory members who have obtained the signatures of three full (ordinary) members, including at least one Committee member, recommending them, may apply for full (ordinary) membership. The Committee may, at its absolute discretion, refuse any application for full membership without assigning any reason.
8. All ordinary members, having paid their current subscription, shall be entitled to the facilities afforded by the Club. They shall be bound by the Constitution, Standing Orders (see Article 23) and other rules of the Club.
9. The Club shall not knowingly admit as a member any person who has been expelled, or who has been refused membership by any Constituent Club of the Association of Inter-Varsity Clubs without consultation with such Association.
10. Members of other Inter-Varsity Clubs which are members of or affiliated to the Association of Inter-Varsity Clubs may, subject to the payment of such supplementary fees or subscriptions as may from time to time be laid down by the Committee, enjoy all the privileges of membership of the Club, provided that at the same time they comply with the rules and regulations of the Club.
11. The annual subscription for ordinary members, and entrance fee (if any), shall be fixed by resolution of a general meeting, provided that notice of intention to change such fee or subscription shall first have appeared in the Agenda or notice of the meeting.
12. Every ordinary member shall be notified of the date on which his subscription falls due. If, after one month from that date, he has not paid his subscription, his membership shall lapse forthwith. If any lapsed member wishes to renew his subscription within twelve months of the renewal date, he shall be liable to the full subscription from that date and any entrance fee that may apply at the time. If after twelve months a lapsed member wishes to renew his subscription it will be necessary to submit a formal application to the Committee.
13. Any member may resign membership by giving the Membership Secretary notice in writing to that effect.
14. Members are expected to behave in accordance with the clubs "Code of Conduct". Disputes and complaints about behaviour will be dealt with in accordance with the clubs "Guidance on Handling Disputes". Both these documents can be obtained from the club Secretary. In the event of serious or repeated misconduct by a member, which is incompatible with their continued membership of the club, their membership may be revoked.
15. Upon a person ceasing to be a member of the Club he shall forfeit all right to and claim upon the Club and its property and funds except for any claim notified to the Membership Secretary in writing at the time of resignation under Article 13 or 14 or within one month of a notice of expulsion being sent to him.

16. Every member of the Club shall communicate to the Membership Secretary any change of his own address. All notices posted to a member's address shall be considered as having been duly given on the second day following the date of posting, in the case of first class mail, or on the fourth day following the date of posting, in the case of second class mail. Notices served by electronic means such as e-mail or fax shall be considered as having been duly given if no delivery failure message has been received within 24 hours.
17. No proceedings of the Club shall be invalidated solely because of the discovery subsequent thereto of some accidental omission to give notice.

MANAGEMENT

18. The officers of the Club shall include as a minimum; a Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer, Association Liaison Officer (ALO), Activities Secretary, Membership Secretary.
19. The management of the Club shall be deputed to a Committee consisting of:-
 - (a) The officers mentioned in Article 18.
 - (b) Those ordinary members of the Committee elected in accordance with Articles 26 and 27 of the Constitution.
20. The Committee of the Club may by resolution co-opt any additional members for the remainder of the meeting only, unless otherwise empowered by their parent body in accordance with Article 19. At least two-thirds of the members present and eligible to vote must vote in favour of such resolutions.
21. The Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer shall be entitled to attend any Committee of the Club.

40. The financial year of the Club shall end on the 31st March in each year.
41. Auditors shall audit the accounts after the end of the financial year and before the Annual General Meeting.
42. No member shall, except for services rendered at the request of the Committee on any pretence or in any manner receive any profit, salary or emoluments from the funds or transactions of the Club.

DISSOLUTION

43. If, at any General Meeting of the Club, a resolution for the dissolution of the Club be passed by two-thirds of the members present, a poll of all ordinary members shall be held not less than one month and not more than three months thereafter. If such resolution be confirmed by two-thirds of those voting in the poll, the Committee shall thereupon, or at such future date as shall be specified in such resolution, proceed to realise the property of the Club, and after discharge of all liabilities, shall divide the residue equally among the ordinary members, or shall dispose of it in accordance with the resolution. Honorary and temporary members shall have no claim to such residue. Notice of any motion to dissolve the Club shall be given not less than fourteen days before the meeting.

INTERPRETATION AND AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION

44. The Committee shall be the sole authority for the interpretation of these Articles of Constitution, and of any regulations made there under, and the decision of the Committee upon any question of interpretation or upon any matter affecting the Club and not specially provided for by these Articles or by any regulations made there under shall be final and binding upon the members.
- 45.
- (a) Subject to AIVC approval these Articles of Constitution may be added to, repealed or amended by resolution of a General Meeting, the intention of which shall have appeared in the notice of or Agenda for the meeting, provided that two-thirds of the members present vote in favour thereof. Voting shall be by a show of hands unless at least four members shall demand a secret ballot.
 - (b) This Constitution must comply with the AIVC Constitution at all times. If the AIVC Constitution is amended this Constitution must be amended appropriately as soon as possible by the Committee. Whenever it is changed for whatever reason, a copy should be sent to the Secretary of the AIVC.

LIABILITY

46. No member shall by virtue of being a member of the Club have any more rights to compensation for any injury, loss or damage arising from any of the Club's activities than if he were a person not a member of the Club.

Signed
